

SUMMARY

The purpose of the revisions to the Policy for Erection of Specific Information Signs (Logos) is to include “Attractions” as a type of Specific Service Sign and to define the role of the Department of Parks and Tourism in deciding which attractions will be approved. Further, the Policy name will be changed to “Specific Service Signs” rather than “Specific Information Signs.”